1974

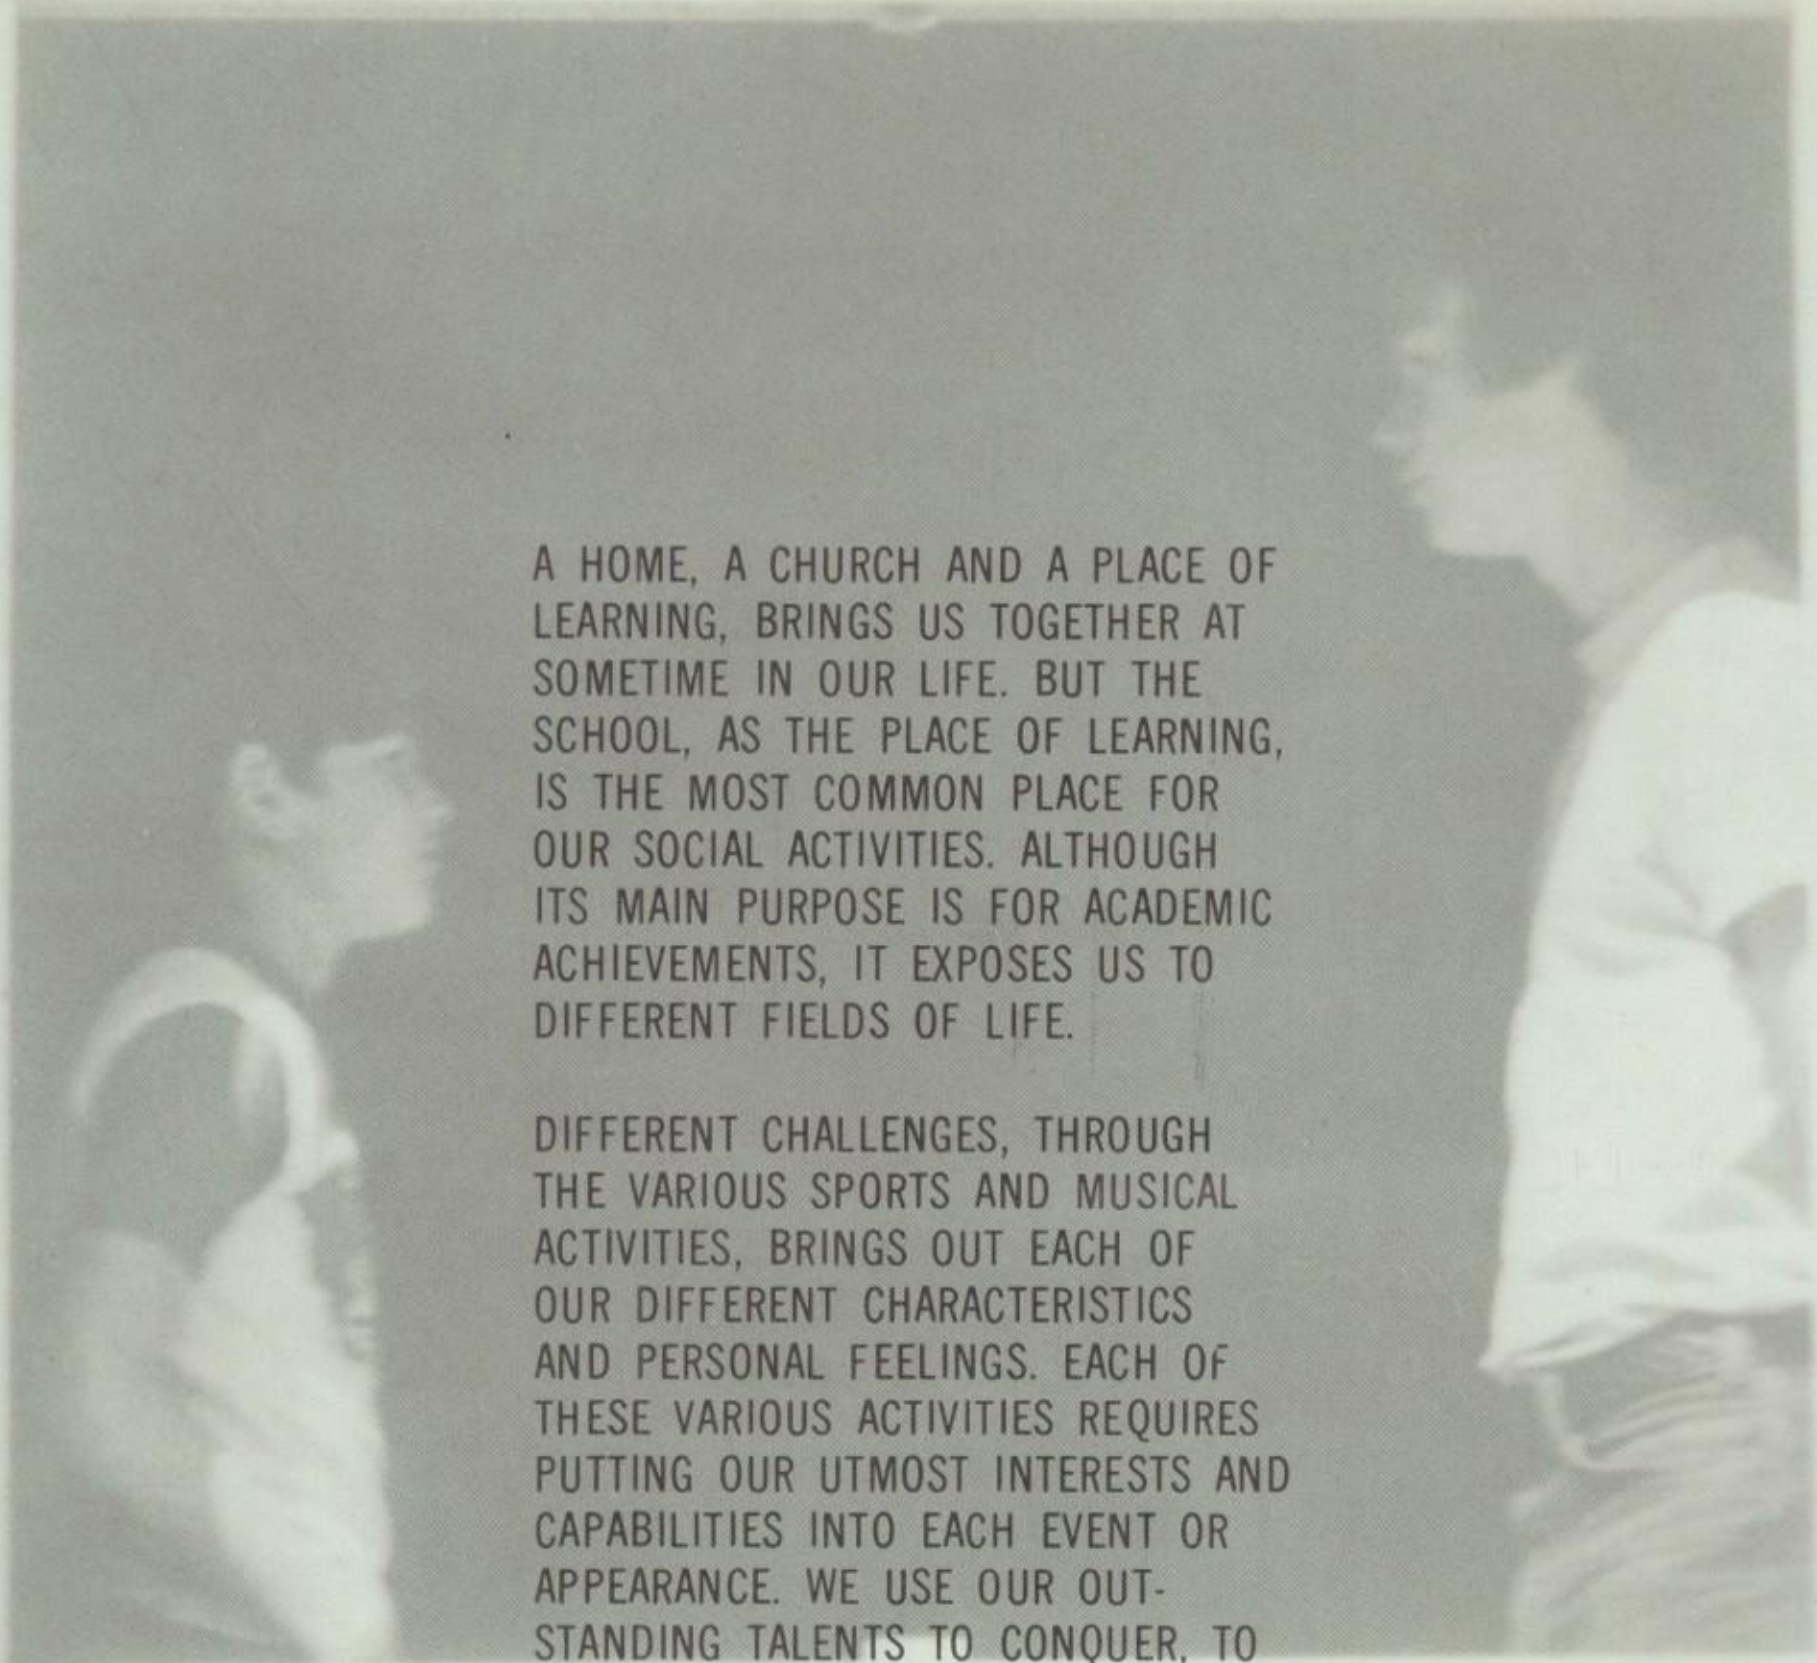

WE, THE NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FOUR GRADUATES OF AR-LINGTON HIGH SCHOOL, proudly present the 1974 Excelsior Yearbook to the friends, families, students, and employees of Arlington High School.

We have tried to capture moments of joy, excitement, and enchantment to bring back glorious memories of the old "school days".

To the students, faculty, and administration of Arlington High School, the Senior Class of 1974 dedicates this the

1974 EXCELSIOR YEARBOOK

A HOME, A CHURCH AND A PLACE OF LEARNING, BRINGS US TOGETHER AT SOMETIME IN OUR LIFE. BUT THE SCHOOL, AS THE PLACE OF LEARNING, IS THE MOST COMMON PLACE FOR OUR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES. ALTHOUGH ITS MAIN PURPOSE IS FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS, IT EXPOSES US TO DIFFERENT FIELDS OF LIFE.

DIFFERENT CHALLENGES, THROUGH THE VARIOUS SPORTS AND MUSICAL ACTIVITIES, BRINGS OUT EACH OF OUR DIFFERENT CHARACTERISTICS AND PERSONAL FEELINGS. EACH OF THESE VARIOUS ACTIVITIES REQUIRES PUTTING OUR UTMOST INTERESTS AND CAPABILITIES INTO EACH EVENT OR APPEARANCE. WE USE OUR OUTSTANDING TALENTS TO CONQUER, TO CHALLENGE AND TO SOMETIMES FALL IN DEFEAT. WE'RE INVOLVED WITH BOTH YOUNG AND OLD. WE HAVE RIVALS AND PEERS, BOTH OF WHICH, IN THE LONG RUN, ARE THE CLOSEST OF FRIENDS WE WILL EVER HAVE.

THROUGH THIS YEARBOOK, THEREFORE, WE WISH THAT OTHERS WILL SEE US BEING OURSELVES.

SENIORS

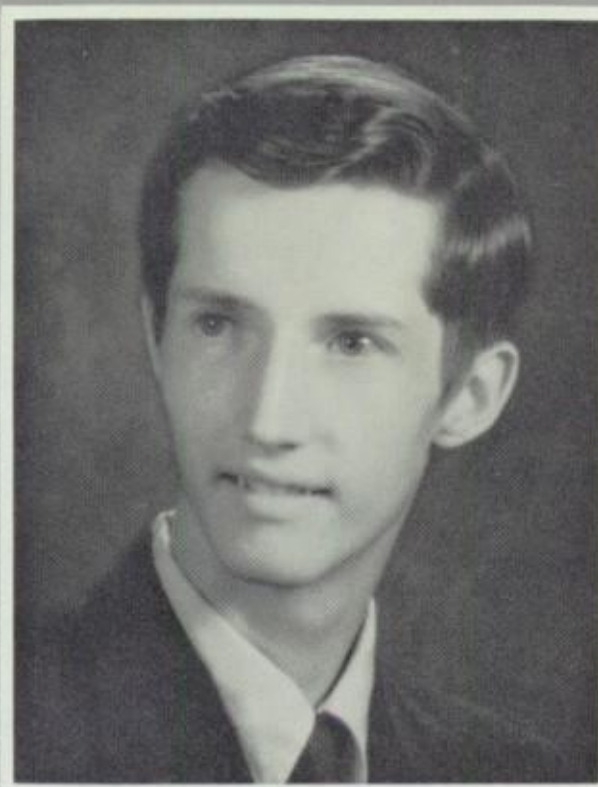

Now our time is over; the minutes have slipped us by,
and the past cannot be replaced.
We have either succeeded or fallen short,
and though a new day is dawning,

Our high school years have gone far in coloring our world.

SWEDISH A.F.S. STUDENT MATS ENGSTRÖM

"If I am accepted as a candidate of the A.F.S. Scholarship, I would be happy to come to a small place, most of all to a farm. I am used to living in the country and have no experience of living in a big town. I think that a year in the U.S.A. would be very interesting."

These are the thoughts of Mats Engström, Arlington's A.F.S. student for the 1973-74 school year. Mats is originally from Vasterhejde, Visby, an island governed by Sweden. Mats's family, which consist of his mother and father, sister, and his mother's "old uncle", live on a farm near the sea. Mats is use to the responsibilities of a farm. While in Visby, Mats worked with his horse, chickens, and calves. Besides these animals, Mats earned money selling strawberries which came from his father's strawberry fields.

In his spare time in Sweden, Mats belongs to a youth club which is associated with his church. He is also a member of C.U.F., which is similar to our F.F.A.

While staying at his host family, the James Risser's, Mats has been exposed to many aspects of the American way of life. Besides seeing the farming community of Arlington, Mats has traveled with the Risser's to many states in the U.S., such as Arizona, California, Florida and Michigan.

When Mats returns to Sweden, he is planning to attend an agricultural school, so that he will be able to operate his father's farm successfully in his future years.

We hope that Mats has enjoyed his stay at Arlington as much as the people in Arlington have enjoyed having their third A.F.S. student to reside in their community.

Upper Center: Hands up you guys!

Left: Mats and his host family--the Risser's: Mr. and Mrs. James Risser, Laura, Kevin, Scott, and Sabastian.

STUDENT LIFE

... And the Juniors came tumbling down!

Dave Demler; School Photographer -- Is it alive Dave?

Give her a hand.

Don't look at me, I didn't do it!

Enthusiasm at the pep rally.

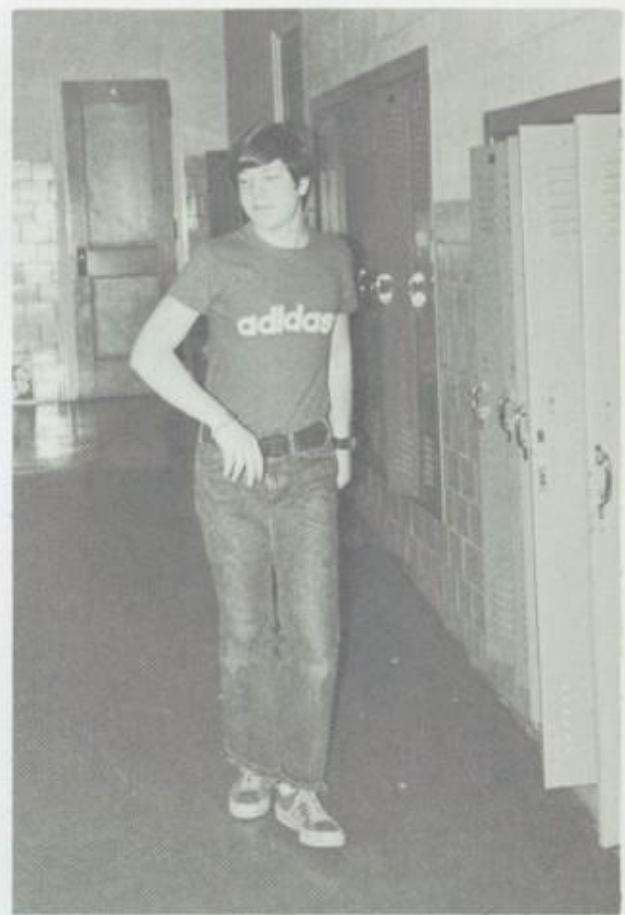

Andy Pifer cheating? Never!!

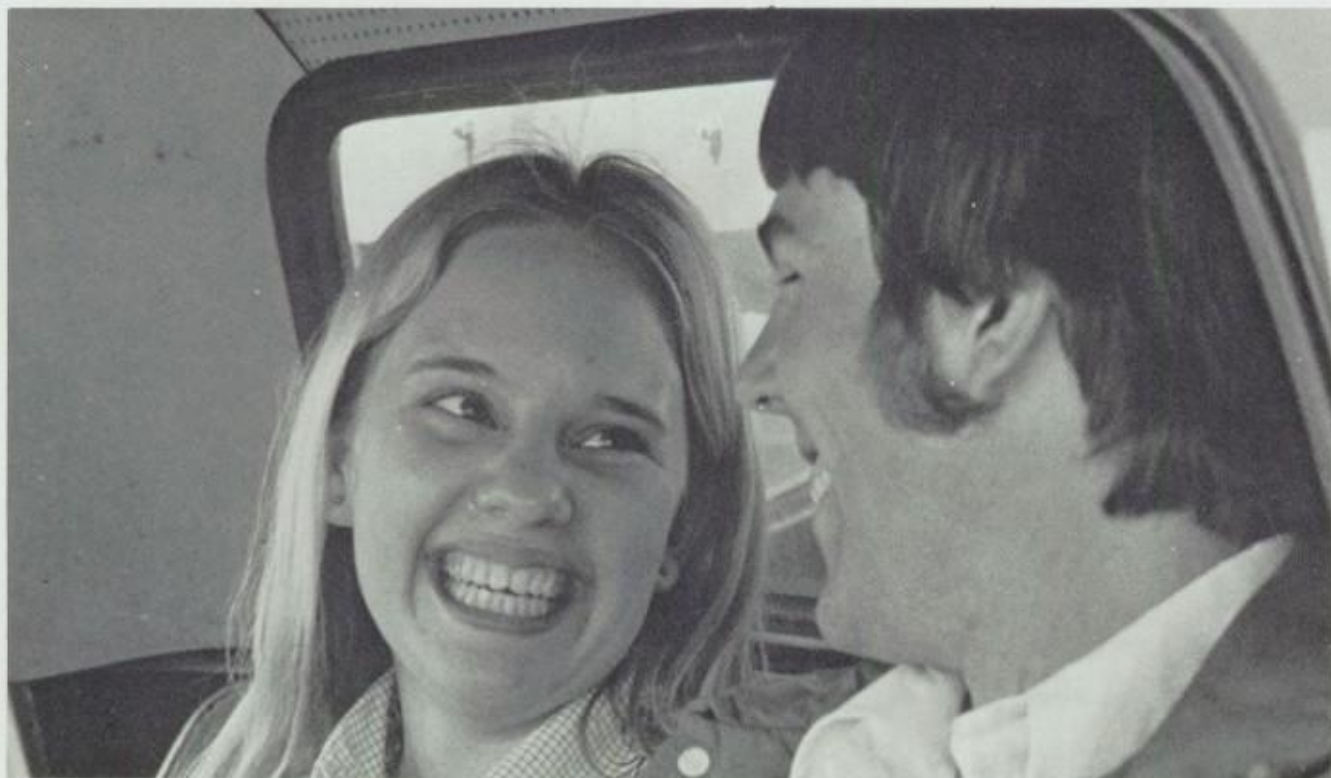

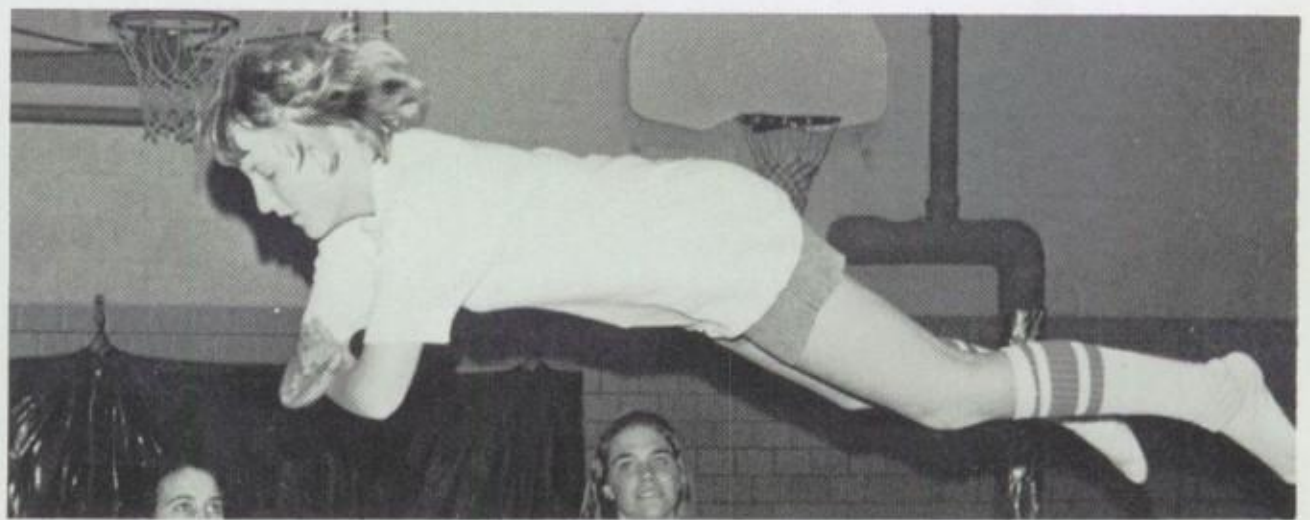

Mark Rossman, a very relaxed person?

Kit seems to have the 'no visible means of support'.

Van and Jane, the happy couple?!

The front line, ready for action!!!

I go crazy over tall, dark, handsome men!

... and this is how they built the Washington Monument?

What are you drinking Cindy?

Karen C., a maestro hard at work.

Jill, didn't your mother tell you about Ultra Brite!

Ooo! Who pinched me?

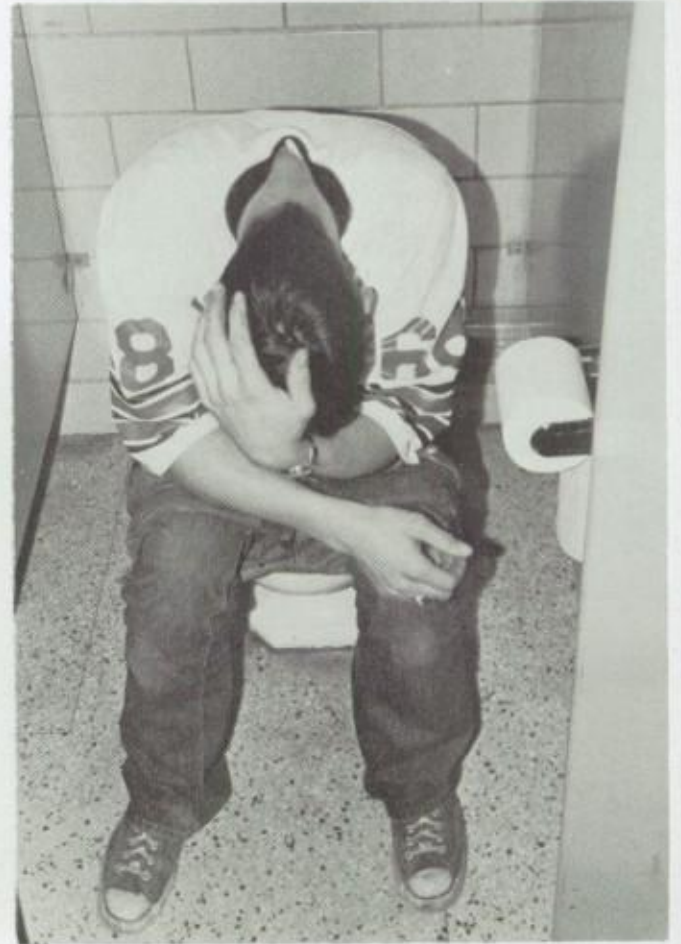

Sally B. always has a smile.

You missed it again!

Keep on singing, baby.

Are you kidding, I wouldn't ride in this thing if you paid me.

CLASS HISTORY

Many exciting things happened that first year in kindergarten under the direction of Mrs. Winstead. There she was, trying to prepare us for twelve more long years, and we were fighting over who got to play in the kitchen. We were very inquisitive and just couldn't understand why the girls couldn't go into the restroom with the boys. Love bloomed for Steve Ebert and Marci McDevitt until the second day of school when she deliberately stepped on his toe. At the year's end, Ray Wolford, Susie Traucht and Beverly Essinger left us.

In first grade our teachers were Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Myers. Our inquisitive natures were still at work--especially Terry Huffman's. After school activities began when Terry started a club upstairs in his garage. The initiation ceremonies were terrible--just ask Rhonda Gossman. That year we gained Dave Bess, Thelma Coburn, Beverly Bacon, and Carol McDougale. Maxine Helms and Deb Feasel left us.

In second grade we were kept busy trying to find answers for our SRA workbooks. Mrs. Huffman and Mrs. Warner were our teachers. During recess all the girls stayed indoors and Teresa Martin taught us all how to dance the pony. Terry Huffman had to wear a dress all day because the teacher saw him coming out of the girls' restroom. The real culprits were Laura Risser, Marci McDevitt and Beverly Bacon--they pushed him in. Marci wasn't as lucky the next time she tried something--Mrs. Warner tied her to her chair. Joining our class were Connie Leisure, Fred Inman, Harold Christopher, III, Nancy Krout, Vickie Price, Andrea Woodard, and Diane Taylor. Leaving were Beverly Bacon, Carol McDougale, Dave Bess, Donnie Smith, Mike Gerald, and Terry Grohoske.

Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Shellenbarger were our teachers in third grade. Nothing much happened that year--in fact, we might have behaved a little. There was some excitement out on the playground, however, when Tom Bateson ran in front of Doug Billingsley's swing. The swing caught Tom just above the eye and he rolled, screaming, into a mud puddle. The rest of us, certain that he was dying, ran to the school yelling, "Tom has been killed!" As it turned out, Tom lived but he cried unbearably throughout the day. That year we gained Tim Feasel, Pam Moses, Anna Rodabough, Jenny Wickard, Sharon Mowery, and Teresa Dawson. We lost Fred Inman and Thelma Coburn.

Things really began to happen in the fourth grade under Mrs. Loader and Mrs. Hudson. Marci McDevitt and Deb Riegle got caught drawing dirty pictures and Mrs. Hudson posted them on the bulletin board. Plunging into our class that year was Van Follas and Jim and Mike Diamond. We lost Connie Leisure and Jenny Wickard.

In fifth grade we were all falling in love. Linda Bower and Tom Bateson, Jane Hartman and Dave Neal, and Ann Decker and Kevin Light were just a few of the new romances. Our teachers that year were Mrs. McDevitt and Mrs. Willeke. We gained John and Jr. Oman, Bruce Cook, Brad Drake and LeRoy Tallman.

Miss Foltz and Mrs. Spangler finally got us through the last SRA booklets and out of the elementary halls. But it took a lot of patience. Miss Foltz must have broken 20 squirt guns that year as a result of all the water fights behind the flip-top desks. The boys caused so much trouble in the restroom that the janitors had to take the door off. Mr. Kreinbrink hit Russell Yoxheimer with the board. Russell then said that his father could hit harder than that, where upon Mr. Kreinbrink proved him wrong. Anna Clevenger got her first of many nicknames--Bush Woman. Joining our class were Margaret Smith, Deb Grove, Pam Love and Glenda Perkins. LeRoy Tallman, Joe Long, Jimmy Baird, and Harold Christopher, III left us.

Moving into the seventh grade, we really thought we were something. Changing classes every time the bell rang was the most grown up thing we had done since we started school. We actually had a library class. Mrs. Slee gave a test on the Dewey Decimal System, which the entire class failed. Sharon Mowery, Teresa Dawson, Pam Love and Brad Drake left us.

After running the halls in seventh grade, they had the nerve to put us in a block system in eighth grade. Our teachers were Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Claphan. The highlight probably had to be the exercise routine we did at the basketball game. We've hated the song, "The Beat Goes On" every since. Mrs. Claphan started making mistakes that year--she took us to Columbus. Steve Ebert tried to take a sign from the State House lawn, but he got caught. Surely we can't forget the transparent lady at the museum with all the flashing lights. Peg Morehart, Rusty Field, and Jane Cole came to Arlington that year and Billie Hindall, Patti Keck and John and Jr. Oman left.

In our freshman year, we got into all the extra-curricular activities--sports, clubs, Senior Band--all the things that tell you are finally in high school. Mrs. Basinger was teaching us the facts of life in health class with the lights off so no one would be embarrassed. Kelly Boutwell, Bill Beach, Mike Clifford, Laura Lobdell, and Roxanne Strait joined us in our freshmen year and Pam Moses and Robin Corbin left us.

Getting our class rings was the major event in our sophomore year. Kevin Light had a great hayride--no eggs--just a hayride with a great football game afterwards. Sue Ford, Jim Smith and Ginger Lazenby came to Arlington and Teresa Martin left.

With only two more years left, we entered the eleventh grade. Our football team became BVC champs. Half-time at the games was exciting also, as we were amused by Marci McDevitt as she slipped and fell, twice in one season. Our prom theme was "Caught in a Dream". The group "Roundhouse" performed for the dance, between trips to the cafeteria. Leaving us our junior year were Sue Ford, Ron Porter, Glenda Perkins and Rhonda Gossman--but Rhonda left for a very SHORT time.

Well, it's finally spring and we're going to graduate. Mrs. Claphan didn't lose her 'cool' too much this year--just when the second period government class locked her out of the room. The highlights of the trip to Columbus were the sit-in under the steps at the Ohio Historical Museum and the big explosion outside the State House.

We are graduating now and it has really been a happy 12 years. We'll miss our classmates whom we've learned to love and will remember in our future years.

We, the 1974 graduates, wish 12 enjoyable years to all the future Senior classes at Arlington High School.

HARDIN NORTHERN--The defense collected their fourth shut-out of the year while the offense gained 17 first downs and 276 yards. Wilch carried 2 TD's Brown and R. Cooper both carried 1, Cooper's coming from a recovery of a blocked punt.

ARCADIA--In this game, S. Brown passed for 129 yards and Wilch ran for 106 yards. Krout, Follas, Wagner, and Rossman scored the Arlington touchdowns.

Although the record book shows a 6 - 14 record, 12 of the losses were by 10 points or less. Tournament action was highlighted by Coach Wagner's 300th career victory in the opening round. For his outstanding performance through the season, Dan Oats was named first All - B.V.C.

After boarding the Amtrac at Lima, Ohio, the 90 member "All Brass Band" accompanied by approximately 45 adults settled down for the long awaited trip to Washington, D.C. from March 26-31. For four years, the band members had been raising money by selling various products, raffle tickets to the Rose Bowl game, and skating tickets. The band, also, received money from bingo games held at the town hall, smorgasbords, banquets, and many generous donations.

While in Washington, the band members and chaperons saw the White House, Capital building, Supreme Court, Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, Bureau of Engraving, Wax Museum, Ford's Theater, National Geographic Center, Kennedy Center, Washington Monument, and Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

To highlight their four-day stay in Washington, the "All Brass Band" marched in the Cherry Blossom Festival Parade.

Despite the pouring rain, the band received third in their division.

THE PERFECT IDIOT, the high school boy genius, wants to take the college entrance examination early. Because he is unpopular with his classmates and has a "Smart-Me, Dumb-You" attitude toward them, his parents feel he must mature before attending college. By bribing his friends into making him popular, several hilarious events evolve. Dan invents a hypnotic box and with it, makes Puff, the flunking star athlete, into an "A" student. Dan also discovers girls by falling in love with Linda, which squelches any desire for college.

Using a gun, Pa tries to get their neighbor, Chiz, to marry Ceellie. Ceellie is excited about marrying Chiz until a city boy, Ronald, stops at the Belsnickle cabin because of car troubles. Ceellie plans the wedding with Ronald as the victim. Arriving at the ceremony just in time, Chiz's brother, Obeey stops the wedding. Obeey asks Ceellie to marry him, and Ronald returns to the city with Ceellie's sister, Bonnie Mae.

Junior-Senior Prom

ISLAND OF PARADISE

The juniors honored the 1974 graduating Seniors at an "Island of Paradise" Prom. Palm trees, the sea, a volcano, a treasure chest, and a waterfall surrounded all who attended this event on May 24, 1974. After a delicious meal and a brief program, the guests were entertained by the 'Auburn' band in the gymnasium.

Following the dance, the guests traveled to the Putt-Putt golf course. Next, they traveled to the Croy Center, where a movie, swimming, ping-pong, basketball, and handball were enjoyed.

The Post-Prom completed the all night affair. The Senior Breakfast was held at Deb Grove's home, while the juniors gathered at Sheryl Hendricks' home.

The codfish lays ten thousand eggs,
The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles
To tell you what she's done;
And so we scorn the codfish,
While the humble hen we prize,

You can't consume a college education as you can a car, stereo set or new clothes.

It's not even meant to give you status.

It's intangible. And its value depends on how much of yourself you're willing to put into it.

In a consumer oriented economy, where conspicuous consumption is the norm, a college education may not glitter. But underneath the surface it may be pure gold.

Findlay College is now in its 90th year, offering young people a liberal arts education.
In all honesty, it's something that won't wear out.

LINDA ZUTAVERN

Dear Reader,

As I look back into this past year, many strange and exciting experiences have happened. At the beginning of the year, our advisor, Miss Zutavern, knew as much about putting an annual together as I did. Not too much! So through our many workshop experiences, we have tried to bring you the highlights of the past year.

There are so many people I'd like to thank for their help in putting this annual together. First, I'd like to thank Ginger Lazenby for her excellent designs for each page of this yearbook. I would like to thank our editors of each division, and the people who worked in their divisions. Another thank you is extended to Dave Demler and Dave Hindall, our photographers. Without all these people working together as a group, our annual would not be a success. Last of all, I would like to thank you, the buyer, who supported this yearbook. Thank you.

In closing, I would like to thank the parents and teachers that helped our graduating class obtain a high cultural and educational experience.

This year was an important year, not only for students but also for the teachers. It is time now to honor one of our dedicated teachers who is retiring this school year. Mr. Glover Webb has served Arlington with his wisdom and knowledge and has improved the minds of countless students. We, therefore, recognize Mr. Webb as an asset to the teaching profession.

Sincerely,

Janice Pepple
